

UNIVERSITY OF THE PACIFIC

FINANCIAL RESPONSIBILITY ACCEPTANCE FORM

I understand that by registering for courses with the University of the Pacific, I am responsible for all "charges" as they become due. The charges include but are not limited to tuition, fees, room and board, meal plans, Laptop Agreement, bookstore charges and library charges (herein "charges"). I acknowledge and agree that these charges are for an educational benefit. I further understand that if I fail to satisfy my financial obligation to the University, I will not be provided any benefits from the University. The benefits which may be terminated include but are not limited to, course registration, housing and meal plans, transcripts and diplomas. It is agreed that the balance of any outstanding charges due on my student account will be transferred to a Student Note Loan balance with the Student Loan Department for servicing. This Student Note Loan balance is subject to daily interest, late fees, collection fees, credit bureau reporting, and any legal fees associated with the collection of this educational debt including fees and costs associated with any bankruptcy. Failure to pay these charges when due will result in loss of housing, suspension of meal plans, termination of enrolled student status, and will be denied access to the monthly payment plan option.

I have also been advised and understand that it is my responsibility to insure that all financial aid is properly credited to my account. The University reserves the right to change or increase their fees and charges. Registration constitutes my agreement to all the foregoing terms and conditions.
