

STAFF CAREER DEVELOPMENT EXPO

November 17th-18th
DeRosa University Center
Ballroom

November 17th

10:00–11:00 President Eibeck

Join us as President Eibeck shares her career path, how she handled the work/life balance we all encounter and her vision for Pacific staff. There will be time for questions and answers at the end of her speech. Location: UC Ballroom

1:00–2:15 Panel Q & A

Join a panel of Pacific staff share how they've grown their careers. There will be time for questions and answers.

Location: UC Ballroom

2:30–3:30 Meyers Briggs Assessment Results

Discover your temperament and learn how to put that knowledge to work for you! John Carvana will provide Meyers Briggs Assessment. Limited seating available. Reservation by 11/4 is required for this session! Location: UC Room 211

November 18th

10:00–11:15 Career Development Dialogue

Employees and supervisors often miss the potential benefits of working together for the employee's development, because either or both are concerned about conveying misleading messages. This session will give you tools and resources for overcoming these concerns and having productive conversations with your boss about your career.

Location: UC Ballroom

12:00–1:30 Discovering Your Strengths & Speed Networking

Do you get sweaty palms just thinking about the word “networking”? Do you get tongue-tied when you try to represent yourself to new business contacts? Come and discover your strengths and learn to create a “sound bite” to help you network.

Bring your lunch, beverages and desserts will be available. Location: UC Ballroom

IMPORTANT

- To RSVP please go to InsidePacific and register for the sessions via the Faculty-Staff Development/Training Online Registration channel. Select the appropriate session(s) and click “Enroll”.
- The Meyers Briggs Assessment has limited seating and requires registration via online training channel in InsidePacific.

Co-Sponsored by Staff Advisory Council and Human Resources