

NONPROFIT BOARD DEVELOPMENT

WOW!

“Keep up the great work! A must have training!”

- Vance Strong, Board Member, The Mediation Center of San Joaquin

University of the Pacific Westgate Center for Management Development is offering a one-day training program specifically for nonprofit boards. This program will build a bridge between board members and management and will enable the board and their organization to reach their full potential. Topics to be discussed include:

- The Role of the Board
- Setting the Mission, Vision and Strategic Goals of the Organization (What’s our purpose?)
- Recruitment, Orientation and Retention of Board Members
- Financial Understanding for Board Members
- Surviving in Tough Economic Times
- Evaluating the Executive Director
- Fund Development (Strategic Planning and the Do’s and Don’ts)
- Running Effective Board Meetings
- Creating Successful Annual Board Retreats
- Board Self-Assessment

SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE

The Leadership Stockton Alumni Association (LSAA) was created to foster leadership in our community. To ensure that nonprofits have an opportunity to participate in this program they are generously providing several scholarships to non-profit directors and board members. For information on applying for scholarships, please contact Alicia Chin at 209.946.2956.

$195 - Early registration fee (before 10/9/09)

$225 - Registration fee

“Great presenters - kept everyone engaged. Content was affirming and provided practical, useful tools. Thanks!”

-Lindy Turner-Hardin, Executive Director
Child Abuse Prevention Council of San Joaquin

FRIDAY,
OCT. 23, 2009

8:30 A.M. - 4:00 P.M.

*Space is Limited
Call Today!*

209.946.2956

e-mail: westgate@pacific.edu

Westgate Center for Management Development
Eberhardt School of Business