

FALLS PREVENTION CLINIC PROGRAM

Osteoporosis and Falls Prevention Screening, Education, and Intervention for Seniors

This program screens participants for their risk of osteoporosis and also their risk for having a fall.

Screening opportunities include:

- Screening questions
- Educational information
- Falls-risk testing
- Bone mineral density testing

Private, individualized consultation services can be scheduled by appointment after the program and include:

- Physical-therapy intervention-education
- Identification-education-intervention for medicines
- Canes or walkers, based on need

This service is FREE and provided through our Falls Prevention Clinic or at the program site:

Where: FRANCO CENTER APARTMENTS

144 Mun Kwok Lane

Stockton, CA 95202

(209) 466-3577

When: Tuesday, October 20, 2009

Time: 2 PM

UNIVERSITY OF THE
PACIFIC

Thomas J. Long School of
Pharmacy & Health Sciences

Joseph Woelfel, PhD., FASCP, RPh.

Director of Pharmaceutical Care
Clinics

Assistant Professor

University of the Pacific

Thomas J. Long School of

Pharmacy and Health Sciences

Tel: 209 946 2374

Mobile: 209 986 7555

jwoelfel@pacific.edu (office)

IMPORTANT: The information and suggestions provided through our services are not a substitute for those of your primary care provider.